

Present/future	Lesson 1 Getting ahead p.4 Language to go: Talking about your job/hobby Speaking and vocabulary: Your life Listening: Chris's career Grammar: Review of tenses Get talking and writing: Achievements and hobbies	Lesson 9 A perfect weekend p.20 Language to go: Making plans Vocabulary and speaking: Weekend activities Reading: E-mails Grammar: Tenses for describing future plans Get talking and writing: A day trip	Lesson 17 Positive thinking p.36 Language to go: Talking about how likely things are to happen Vocabulary and speaking: Weather idioms used for personality Reading and speaking: Optimist or pessimist? Grammar: Expressions of probability Get talking: Predictions, optimism and pessimism	Lesson 25 Under pressure p.62 Language to go: Talking about changing situations Vocabulary and speaking: Expressions for annoying habits Reading: Laughter in the workplace Grammar: Present continuous and present simple for describing change Get talking: Stressful aspects of life	Lesson 33 Making life easier p.68 Language to go: Talking about future developments in day-to-day living Speaking and vocabulary: Phrases to describe machines Reading: An easier life for the lazy generation Grammar: Future perfect/continuous Get talking: Gadgets and machines	Present/future
	Lesson 2 Modern survival p.6 Language to go: Discussing health and lifestyles Speaking and vocabulary: Adjectives for describing lifestyles Listening: Radio interview with doctor Vocabulary 2: Verb phrases to describe health Get talking and writing: Lifestyles	Lesson 10 Just the job p.22 Language to go: Writing a CV Speaking and reading: Getting your foot in the door Vocabulary: Expressions for describing yourself, your skills and experience Get writing: Job applications and CVs	Lesson 18 Money talks p.38 Language to go: Talking about money Vocabulary and speaking: Expressions with money Listening: Bruce and Vlad discuss different aspects of money Vocabulary 2: Financial terms Get talking: Attitudes to money	Lesson 26 At home p.54 Language to go: Talking about homes Speaking and listening: Two contrasting houses Vocabulary: Phrases to describe houses Get talking: Your dream home	Lesson 34 In a black mood p.76 Language to go: Talking about your feelings Speaking and vocabulary: Phrases for describing clothes Listening: A colour therapist Vocabulary 2: Phrases for describing emotions Get talking: Do colours affect you?
The past	Lesson 3 Coincidences p.8 Language to go: Telling stories in the past Vocabulary and speaking: Time adverbials Reading and speaking: You'll never believe it! Grammar: Narrative tenses Get talking and writing: Important events	Lesson 11 In the media p.24 Language to go: Having a job interview and talking about your experience Vocabulary and speaking: The media Listening: A job interview Grammar: Present perfect simple/continuous Get talking: Job interviews	Lesson 19 Unlucky for some p.40 Language to go: Talking about things you were going to do Vocabulary and speaking: Disaster verbs and prepositions Reading: Four tales of misfortune Grammar: Future in the past Get talking and writing: Tales of woe	Lesson 27 A new beginning p.56 Language to go: Describing a personal change of environment Vocabulary: US/UK English Listening: A Pole in America Grammar: To be/get used to Get talking: A situation you had to get used to	Lesson 35 Missing the mark p.72 Language to go: Giving other people's opinions Speaking: Predictions Listening and vocabulary: Radio programme on erroneous predictions; verbs used for reporting Grammar: To be/get used to Get talking: Constructions with reporting verbs Get talking: Reporting predictions	The past
	Lesson 4 Friends p.10 Language to go: Discussing advantages and disadvantages Vocabulary and speaking: Noun combinations with -friend and -mate Listening: Radio interview with a counsellor Grammar: Phrases of addition, result and contrast Get talking and writing: Friendship	Lesson 12 Ready to cook! p.26 Language to go: Describing how to make a dish Speaking and vocabulary: Preparing and cooking food Listening and speaking: Two recipes Grammar: Countable/uncountable nouns and quantifiers Get talking: Recipes	Lesson 20 Taxi! p.42 Language to go: Talking about journeys Speaking and listening: Taxis in different countries Vocabulary: Adverbs of intensity Grammar: So/such Get talking: Memorable journeys	Lesson 28 Animal magic p.58 Language to go: Describing and defining things Speaking and reading: Are human beings really the most advanced creatures on the planet? Grammar: Relative clauses Get talking and writing: Crosswords	Lesson 36 Now or never p.74 Language to go: Telling stories Vocabulary and speaking: Types of books Reading: Extract from Harley's Ghost Grammar: Participles in narratives Get talking and writing: The final part of the story
Verb patterns	Lesson 5 Small talk p.12 Language to go: Making small talk at a party Vocabulary and speaking: Ways of talking Reading: Conversation starters Listening: Types of conversation Grammar: Question tags Get talking: Roleplay: at a party	Lesson 13 Contact p.28 Language to go: Discussing social behaviour Speaking and vocabulary: Expressions to describe gestures Reading: Why Britain suffers a kissing crisis Grammar: The -ing form/infinitive Get talking: Social acceptability	Lesson 21 Major events p.44 Language to go: Describing important events Vocabulary: News, events and disasters Speaking and listening: Important 20th-century events Grammar: Passives Get talking: Major events	Lesson 29 Treat yourself p.60 Language to go: Talking about things you have done for you Speaking and vocabulary: Expressions to describe mood Reading and speaking: Take it easy! Grammar: To have/get something done Get talking: What do you have done?	Lesson 37 The dream business p.76 Language to go: Talking about working in a company Speaking and listening: Musicmaker.com Grammar: Prepositional phrases Get talking and writing: Your dream company	Verb patterns
	Lesson 6 True love p.14 Language to go: Talking about a relationship Vocabulary and speaking: Expressions for describing relationships Reading and speaking: Nelson/Winnie Mandela and Liz Taylor/Richard Burton Vocabulary 2: Phrasal verbs 1 Get talking and writing: Story-telling	Lesson 14 Two cities p.30 Language to go: Describing places Speaking and listening: Promotional video on Birmingham Vocabulary: Geographical location and character Get talking and writing: Location and brochure for an international conference	Lesson 22 Street life p.46 Language to go: Talking about city life Speaking and vocabulary: Street personalities Reading: Street life in London/Tokyo Vocabulary 2: Phrases with get and take Get talking and writing: Improvements in street life	Lesson 30 Growing up p.62 Language to go: Talking about growing up Vocabulary and speaking: Ages and stages Speaking and listening: Three people talk about important stages in their lives Vocabulary 2: Phrasal verbs 2 Get talking and writing: Important milestones	Lesson 38 Fingers crossed p.78 Language to go: Using idiomatic English Speaking and reading: Seeing eye to eye with English Vocabulary: Body idioms Get talking: Questions involving idioms
Modals	Lesson 7 The daddy of discipline p.16 Language to go: Discussing ways of bringing up children Vocabulary and speaking: Phrases to describe behaviour Reading: Seven ways to be a good parent Grammar: Obligation verbs Get talking: Seven commandments	Lesson 15 Round the clock p.32 Language to go: Talking about consequences Vocabulary and speaking: Verb + noun combinations to describe work patterns and habits Reading: 24 hours a day Grammar: Zero, first and second conditionals Get talking: Attitudes to getting up early and staying up late	Lesson 23 Gun crazy p.48 Language to go: Describing how things could have been different Speaking and vocabulary: Crimes and criminals Speaking and reading: I'm sure I would have shot her Grammar: Third and mixed conditionals Get talking: Situations that could have been different	Lesson 31 Monumental mysteries p.64 Language to go: Speculating about life in the past Vocabulary and speaking: Word building: measurements Reading: Machu Picchu, Stonehenge and Easter Island Grammar: Modals for past deduction Get talking: People in the past	Lesson 39 I wish ... p.80 Language to go: Talking about regrets and missed opportunities Speaking and vocabulary: Phrasal verbs for describing opportunities Listening and speaking: Four missed opportunities Grammar: Should have/if only/wish + past perfect Get talking and writing: 'True Stories' radio show	Modals
	Lesson 8 That's funny p.18 Language to go: Discussing what makes you laugh Speaking and vocabulary: Humour Listening: Four people say what makes them laugh Functions: Agreeing, disagreeing, giving and asking for opinions Get talking: What humour do you like?	Lesson 16 Person to person p.34 Language to go: Talking about people you know Vocabulary and speaking: Adjectives for describing people's characters Listening: Let's Date! TV programme Function: Describing personality Get talking and writing: Blind dates for six famous people	Lesson 24 Difficult situations p.50 Language to go: Coping with difficult situations Vocabulary and speaking: Phrases for describing problems Listening: Four awkward situations Functions: Complaining and getting results Get talking: Roleplay: complaints	Lesson 32 Film reviews p.66 Language to go: Giving your opinion Speaking and vocabulary: Phrases for describing films Listening: Two people's opinions on a film Function: Expressing reactions Get talking and writing: Film reviews	Lesson 40 Mind your manners p.82 Language to go: Saying the right thing Reading and speaking: How polite are you? Listening: Social responses Function: Using social English Get talking: What do you say when ...? game	